Re: Moskalenko v. Carnival PLC et al., Case No. 17-cv-06947 (NGG-CLP)

Dear Magistrate Judge Pollak:

The parties, on consent, through undersigned plaintiff's counsel, submit this joint status report pursuant to your Electronic Status Report Order dated May 26, 2020. Due to inadvertence, we did not realize we had to submit this report last June 10, 2020, and we apologize.

After we submitted the Status Report dated March 5, 2020, Plaintiff's counsel was able to communicate with Ms. Moskalenko who informed him that she had discussed with a local lawyer in Bermuda to represent her in the arbitration proceedings to be filed in Bermuda, pursuant to the Court's Order. Unfortunately, before Ms. Moskalenko was able to make any travel arrangements, the World Health Organization declared a world-wide pandemic due to the Covid-19 corona virus, and she was unable to leave her country, Ukraine. Plaintiff's counsel has just been informed by Ms. Moskalenko that she could still not leave her country, and that Bermuda has just reopened "moving to normal" very recently.

Ms. Moskalenko begs the Court's understanding why she can not to this time file yet her arbitration proceedings in Bermuda as the Court had ordered.

We thank the Court for your time and consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

s/ Felix Q. Vinluan
